One Hundredth Anniversary

MT. CARMEL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Steele's Tavern, Virginia

July 15th, 1937

Hitherto hath the Lord helped us.

There hath not failed one word of all His good promise.

There remaineth yet very much land to be possessed.

Ye shall be witnesses unto Me, both in Jerusalem, and in Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

I will not leave thee nor forsake thee.

Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

MT. CARMEL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Steele's Tavern, Va.

1837-1937

History and Manual

A little over a hundred years ago a number of Presbyterians residing in the vicinity of Steele's Tavern, too far from their respective churches to be able to attend services regularly, began meeting for divine worship in a grove in the village, securing the services of pastors of neighboring churches to conduct worship. These meetings were so well attended that in 1834 plans were made for the erection of a house of worship, Mr. David Steele donating the land. On the first of January, 1836, the building, though not complete, was equipped with temporary seats and occupied by the congregation.

On July 15, 1837 the church was organized by a commission of Lexington Presbytery, with thirty-seven members, who later chose by public vote the name "Mt. Carmel." The following twenty-two presented letters of dismissal from New Providence Church:—Christian Echard, Margaret Echard, Edward Wilson, Elizabeth Wilson, James Henry, Isaac S. McFaddin, Thomas H. McGuffin, Samuel McGuffin, Mary McGuffin, James Alexander, Margaret Alexander, Martha P. Alexander, Richard McGuffin, Jane McGuffin, James S. Wilson, Tirzah Willson, Eliza Anne Wilson, Rebecca McCarter, Amy Lockridge, Cyrus Hall McCormick, Peter Rush and Susannah Rush. The following fifteen presented letters presumably from the Fairfield Presbyterian Church:— Eliza C. Henry, John Echard, Sara J. Cox, Elizabeth Echard, Elizabeth McFaddin, Matthew Robertson, Susan Robertson, Anderson Robertson, John Robertson, Alexander N. Bell, Charlotte Bell, Andrew Smith, Nancy Smith, Margaret Shultz and Susan S. Robertson.

Mr. James Henry, previously an elder in New Providence Church, was elected an elder in the new church. In the following September Messrs. William S. Wilson, Samuel McGuffin and Isaac McFaddin were elected additional elders. In 1845 Messrs. James Henry, Peter Rush and Thomas McCorkle were elected Trustees, "to hold in trust for this Congregation the Church, Church Lot, Church property and Water Right." In 1866 the first deacons were elected, James B. Smith, Hugh F. Lyle, Alexander H. Weir, C. G. Miller, John H. Rush, Blackford Harris and John Stoner.

In the first Minute-book of the Session there is a roll of the following "Coloured Members," with the names of their owners, dates of reception, etc:—Henry, Reuben, Lucinda, Hannah, Clarinda, Winny, Eunice, Lewis, Nathan, Nancy, Sarah, Thomas, Amy, Morris, Janetta, Sally, Mary, Cupid, Eliza, Charlotte, Esther, Milly, Jordon, Hannah, Polly, Elizabeth, Linda, John, Billy, Julia, Mariah, Susannah. Other colored people joined the church from time to time in the following years. The last colored member, Joe Woolridge, died on September 4, 1932.

From January 1, 1836 to July 1, 1856, the Rev. James Paine, pastor of the Fairfield Church, served the church as supply, first giving it a third, later a half of his time. In September, 1858, the church called the Rev. William Pinkerton, of Pennsylvania, who served as stated supply of the two churches for eight years. In 1866 he was called by Mt. Carmel for all his time, and served as pastor till his death in 1875.

In July 1875 a call was extended to the Rev. A. H. Hamilton, of West Virginia, who accepted the call and labored in this church for thirty-eight years, being forced by ill health to resign in 1913. In length of time, and in the consequent growth of the church during his time, Dr. Hamilton's has been the outstanding pastorate in this Church's history. He found it with 173 members and left it with 460. But in other respects than membership he built well. By a patient and faithful ministry he lengthened her cords and strengthened her stakes.

Dr. Hamilton was followed by the Rev. J. E. Purcell, of North Carolina, whose pastorate was marked especially by the erection of the present building. He was in turn succeeded in 1918 by the Rev. John L. Fairly, also of North Carolina, whose special emphasis was on Sunday School and Young People's work. Dr. Fairly resigned in 1924. The next pastor was the Rev. W. G. Somerville, of Virginia, who after a short but blessed pastorate was forced by illness in his family to seek a warmer climate. He was succeeded in 1927 by the present pastor, who had previously been engaged in missionary work in Brazil.

Mt. Carmel has been blessed with several seasons of real revival, accompanied by large ingatherings of members. Outstanding among these were the Howard meeting, in 1874, with forty additions; that of 1892-5, with one hundred and twenty-two additions, and the Belk meeting in 1917, with thirty-six professions. In 1921 there were reported seventy-six additions by profession.

Church Buildings

The first house of worship of Mt. Carmel Church was erected before the organization of the church, and first occupied January 1, 1836. It was not long before this building was insufficient for the needs of the congregation, so in 1860 the second one was erected, on the site of the first, and dedicated on June 9, 1861. This brick building, of simple classic style and with stately columns, was used by the present older generation of our members, and is remembered with affection by all who worshipped in it. But in time it too became old and too small, and was succeeded by the present edifice, which was built by heroic efforts of the people at a cost of $25,805.00, and dedicated without debt on June 25, 1916.

In 1929, largely by volunteer work of the men and boys of the church, a cottage was built at Massanetta Springs for the use of the members of the church attending the Summer Conferences there.

Sunday School

There is no record of when the church began caring in a systematic way for the religious instruction of its young. The first mention of a Sunday School is in the report to Presbytery in 1856, in which mention is made of 15 members in the Sunday School. That number was increased to 100 by 1866, and the School has continued to serve regularly ever since. Its work was greatly facilitated by the erection of the present building, and in 1921 the Sunday School was re-organized into the departmental plan. As far back as records are available, the School has had the following superintendents:—1867-1870, J. D. McGuffin; 1870-1876, C. J. Bell; 1876-1882, A. H. Hamilton; 1883-1891, J. A. Spencer; 1891-1894, A. H. Hamilton; 1895-1913, J. A. Spencer; 1913-1917, J. E. Purcell; 1917-1921, W. S. Hawpe; 1921-1925, E. D. McClure; 1925-1928, L. H. Houser; 1928-1930, H. H. Bell; 1930-1932, L. B. Heizer; 1932-1934, W. W. Whitesell; 1934-1936, E. D. McClure; 1936- , W. S. Hawpe.

The Sunday School first continued throughout the winter months in 1912.

Woman's Work

As everywhere else, the women of Mt. Carmel Church have ever been active and consecrated in their support of the Church and its work. The first Missionary Society of this church was organized

October 1, 1876, with twenty-one members and Mrs. A. H. Hamilton as its first President. The money it raised was sent to Foreign Missions. The Ladies' Aid Society was organized in 1877 with Mrs. A. J. Hyde as President. Funds raised by it were used on the church property. In 1902 the Home Missionary Society was organized, its first president being Mrs. L. C. Lockridge. The Cardenas Missionary Society was organized in 1900, its first president being Miss Sallie Hamilton, who long continued to be its moving spirit.

On June 15, 1916, all the Women's and Girls' Societies were combined into one, the Woman's Auxiliary. It has had the following presidents:—1916-1920, Mrs. S. D. Mangus; 1920-1924, Mrs. L. C. Lockridge; 1924-1929, Mrs. W. H. Hunter; 1929-1933, Mrs. S. F. McClure; 1933-1935, Mrs. W. C. Searson; 1935-1937, Mrs. W. S. Hawpe; 1937- , Mrs. W. S. Wilson. The total of the gifts of the Auxiliary since its organization has been $16,503. But money has been a small part of its work.

Young People's Societies

At one time or another the following Children's or Young People's Societies have existed in this church:—Covenanters, Cardenas, Girls' Home Missionary Society of Raphine, Earnest Workers, Miriam Band and Christian Endeavor. All of these did good work, but left few records of officers, dates, etc. In 1931 the Society of Christian Endeavor, the only one then existing, was re-organized into the Young-People-of-the-Church, which has continued to function according to the plan adopted by the General Assembly. It has had the following presidents:—1931-1932, Rockwell S. Boyle; 1932-1933, Lyllian Rosen; 1933-1934, J. W. Ramsey; 1934-1935, Margaret Ramsey; April, 1935-September, 1936, Gaston Boyle, Jr.; September, 1936 to present, William P. Boyle.

Men-Of-The-Church

There has been for many years an organized Men's Bible Class in Mt. Carmel, but the men have been the last group in the Church to organize a separate society. In 1924 they organized themselves in the Men-of-the-Church, in accordance with the plan recommended by the General Assembly, and so continue to the present time. Their presidents have been the following:—1924-1926, J. D. Parker; 1926-1927, J. H. Wade; 1927-1928, W. S. Hawpe; 1928-1929, J. D. Parker;

Out-Posts

In its desire to take the Gospel to those living out of reach of any church, Mt. Carmel has conducted ten different out-post Sunday Schools and preaching points.

On April 27, 1867, the Session resolved to establish four Sabbath Schools, in addition to the one at Mt. Carmel, already in existence. These were the first four of the following:—

GREENWAY

This was opened in a public school building then in existence on the west side of the farm now owned by Mr. W. S. Hawpe, and placed under the supervision of elders James Henry and J. C. Brownlee. The Sunday School and preaching services continued there until the public school was closed, and for a time thereafter in a grove near by.

MOOR'S SCHOOL-HOUSE

This, also in a public school building, was located on the right side of the road leading west from Raphine, near the top of the ridge. It was placed under the care of elder Jacob Stoner. It is supposed that this school continued till the public school at that place was closed.

CUPP SCHOOL HOUSE

Elder C. J. Bell was appointed superintendent of this school, located on the farm now owned by Mr. W. H. Hunter. No further mention is made of it in the minutes of the Session.

MT. JOY

Of all the out-post Sunday Schools conducted by this church, this, one of the first four, is the only one now in existence. Strategically located, it has for these seventy years served a community having access to no other place of worship. In 1868, the year after the school was opened, a committee was appointed by the Session "to visit Mt. Joy and ascertain if a suitable plot of ground can be obtained on which to build a house of worship" and shortly thereafter a log house was built on land donated by Mr. Ambrose Campbell. This was some years later replaced by the present frame building. Elder William A. Donald was appointed the first superintendent.

The records show that the school has had the following superintendents:—1867-?, W. A. Donald; 1887-1888, J. P. Tribett; 1888-1891, J. A. Hess; 1891-1893, S. F. McClure; 1893-1894, G. L. Dull; 1894-1897, J. W. Miller; 1897-1898, J. A. McKay; 1898-1900, R. A. Holbert; 1900-1904, J. A. McKay; 1904-1906, W. H. Fix; 1906-1907, S. F. McClure; 1907-1908, W. S. Hawpe; 1908-1909, S. F. McClure; 1909-1911, W. S. Hawpe; 1911-1913, J. A. Hess; 1913-1914, W. S. Hawpe; 1914-1915, R. R. Berry; 1915-1919, J. D. McCorkle; 1919-1921, R. R. Berry; 1921-1923, J. H. Wilson; 1923-1924, L. H. Houser; 1924-1926, R. R. Berry; 1926-1927, E. D. McClure; 1927-1928, J. H. Wilson; 1928-1930, W. S. Hawpe; 1930-1934, L. E. Earhart; 1934-1935, H. C. Holbert; 1935- , J. H. Wilson.

Preaching services have been conducted at Mt. Joy from the beginning, for some time once a month. From June, 1929, to November, 1931, there were services twice a month, and from the latter date to the present four times a month. For a number of years evangelistic meetings have been held here annually, and a large number of people have been received into the church at these meetings.

SUNNY-SIDE

At some time during the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Pinkerton an out-post was opened at Sunny-Side, located about three and a half miles north of Mt. Carmel Church and half a mile east of the Highway. Large congregations met here and considerable evangelistic work was done for some years, though we do not know the exact dates of the opening or closing of this work.

ALMO

At this point, on the road leading north from Spottswood and about two miles from that place, a log house of worship was built some time prior to 1879, on land donated by Mr. G. W. Bowers. Here preaching services were held and a thriving Sunday School conducted for many years. Large congregations met and worshipped at this place. In 1876 eighteen persons were received into the membership of the Church here. There was an Almo Missionary Society. The Sunday School here had the following superintendents:—1884-1891, J. W. Miller; 1891-1895, W. H. Fix; 1895-1896, J. A. McKay; 1896-1898, S. F. McClure; 1898-1900, J. W. Miller; 1900-1906, S. F. McClure; 1906-1909, J. W. Miller. On April 3, 1909, by order of the Session, Almo was merged with

SPOTTSWOOD

Here, in the Public School building, a Sunday School was conducted weekly and preaching services held monthly for several years. The following were superintendents of this school:—1910-1911, G. L. Dull; 1911-1912, L. H. Houser; 1912-1913, S. F. McClure; 1913-1914, J. W. Miller; 1914-1916, J. A. Spencer; 1916-1919, J. H. Shultz; 1919-1923, G. M. Rosen; April 1-August 15, 1923, at which time the school was discontinued, J. H. Shultz. Preaching services continued to be held at Spottswood until June 1, 1929.

RAPHINE

After the closing of Moor's School-house a Sunday School seems to have been conducted for a time in the first public school building in Raphine. Due to the large number of Mt. Carmel members living at Raphine, and to the fact that the road to Mt. Carmel was impassable at times during the winter months, a movement was started in 1887 and successfully carried through to build a Union Chapel in Raphine. The land was purchased from Mr. J. E. A. Gibbs, who contributed generously toward the building. For some years this chapel was used also by the Methodist, and Associated Reformed Presbyterian Churches. Here, during the ministry of Dr. Hamilton and later, large congregations gathered, successful evangelistic meetings were held, and a thriving Sunday School was conducted.

The School had as superintendents:—1889-1896, J. A. Parker; 1896-1897, J. A. Parker and J. W. Berry; 1897-1900, J. A. Parker; 1900-1901, C. A. Houff; 1901-1914, J. A. Parker; 1914-1919, J. D. Parker; 1919-1921, E. H. Fulwider; 1921-1922, H. F. Engleman; 1922-1925, C. A. Houser; 1925-1926, L. W. Whitmore; 1926-1927, J. D. Parker.

With better roads and modern methods of transportation it became increasingly easier for residents of Raphine to attend Church and Sunday School at Mt. Carmel, and this Sunday School was discontinued on November 1, 1927. Preaching services continued to be held monthly till June 1, 1929, and have continued since then on fifth Sundays.

MARY CREEK

At the public school by this name, two miles south of Vesuvius, an out-post, with weekly Sunday School and monthly preaching services, was organized in 1922. The School had these Superintendents:—1922-1926, L. B. Heizer; 1926-1929, D. B. Ramsey; 1929-1930, L. B. Heizer; 1930-1931, R. R. Berry. From 1929 to 1931 there were preaching services semi-monthly. On November 7, 1931, due to the fact that the residents around Mary Creek had access to churches of other denominations, this work was discontinued.

LOFTON

A Sunday School was conducted for one year, 1926, at the Lofton School, with Mr. A. C. Lotts as superintendent.

The Manse

The Rev. Mr. James Paine lived near Fairfield, on the farm now owned by Mr. J. Baxter Brown. Rev. Mr. Pinkerton lived in Steele's Tavern, in his own house, now owned by Mr. William G. Hess. Both these ministers occupied a part of their time in teaching school. The present manse was secured for the use of the pastor in 1876, and became the property of the church in 1895.

The Ministry

The following sons of the church have entered the Gospel ministry:—John D. Pinkerton, Isaac N. Campbell, Joseph A. Thomas, John J. Fix, Harry W. Hamilton, Marshall B. Heizer, and Ralston R. Ramsey.

Former Officers

With the exception of short intervals, during which the pulpit was occupied by supplies, Mt. Carmel has had the following

SEXTON

H. A. Campbell

The Church's one Foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
 She is His new creation, by water and the Word:
 From Heaven He came and sought her, to be His holy Bride;
 With His own blood He bought her, and for her life He died.

Present Roll Of Members

(Note: An "E", "L" or "S" following the name indicates whether the person united with this Church by Examination, Letter, or Statement of membership in some other Church. This is followed by the date of uniting with this Church. Names printed a little to the right of the column are of members of the family of the preceding name).
